4. Comment. Material for equipping freight cars for the grain-shipment shuttle service between the U.S.S.R. and East Germany, reported previously.

5. Comment. For break down of shipments by industrial branches, see Annex 1 and Annex 2. The shipments in January 1952 were about 53,600 tons or 38 percent below the total of reported December 1951 shipments. The following is a comparison of the shipments dispatched in December 1951 and January 1952 broken down by categories of goods:

	December 1951 in tons	January 1952 in tons	Plus or Minus Percentage
Chemical industry	19,069.0	31,872.4	+ 67
Vehicle industry	17,363.2	12,320.4	- 29
Woodworking industry	23,622.5	10,643.1	- 55
Building materials industry, stones and earths	10,625.8	9,384.6	- 22
Mining industry (uranium ore)	18,046.9	8,742.9	- 52
Metalworking industry	33,178.2	7,661.3	- 77
Food industry	8,435.2	4,124.5	- 51
Electrical industry	4,527.2	1,315.5	- 71
Paper industry	242.1	856.5	+ 253
Textile industry	239.6	22.0	- 91
Household goods, bulk goods	555.0	466.7	- 16

With the exception of paper shipments, only shipments of chemicals show an increase in January 1952 compared with December 1951; shipments of the other industries declined from 50 to 75 percent. The decline may be seasonal but it is conceivable also that the largest possible number of shipments were dispatched in December 1951 to increase 1951 plan fulfillment. The actual gasoline shipments to the U.S.S.R. in January 1952 were probably considerably higher than those listed in the report since such shipments are usually dispatched as shipments of the occupation power. The shipment of 8,337 tons of special gasoline to the U.S.S.R. is confirmed by border station reports concerning tank cars. These reports refer to 367 tank cars which possibly hold the amount reported above. The number of tank cars, given in the shipping documents as 270 is probably too low because this would mean an average load capacity of about 31 tons per car and, normally a car has a capacity of 22.5 to 25 tons. In addition to the shipments of special gasoline, the Frankfurt/Oder border station reports refer to 604 tank cars, with an estimated total load of 13,600 tons of gasoline and 399 tank cars with an estimated 9,000 tons of Diesel oil.

Assuming that a large part of these shipments was destined for Poland, the U.S.S.R.-bound shipments still exceed the number shown in the present list. It is unknown whether the list is incomplete since, possibly, all shipping documents were not obtained.
